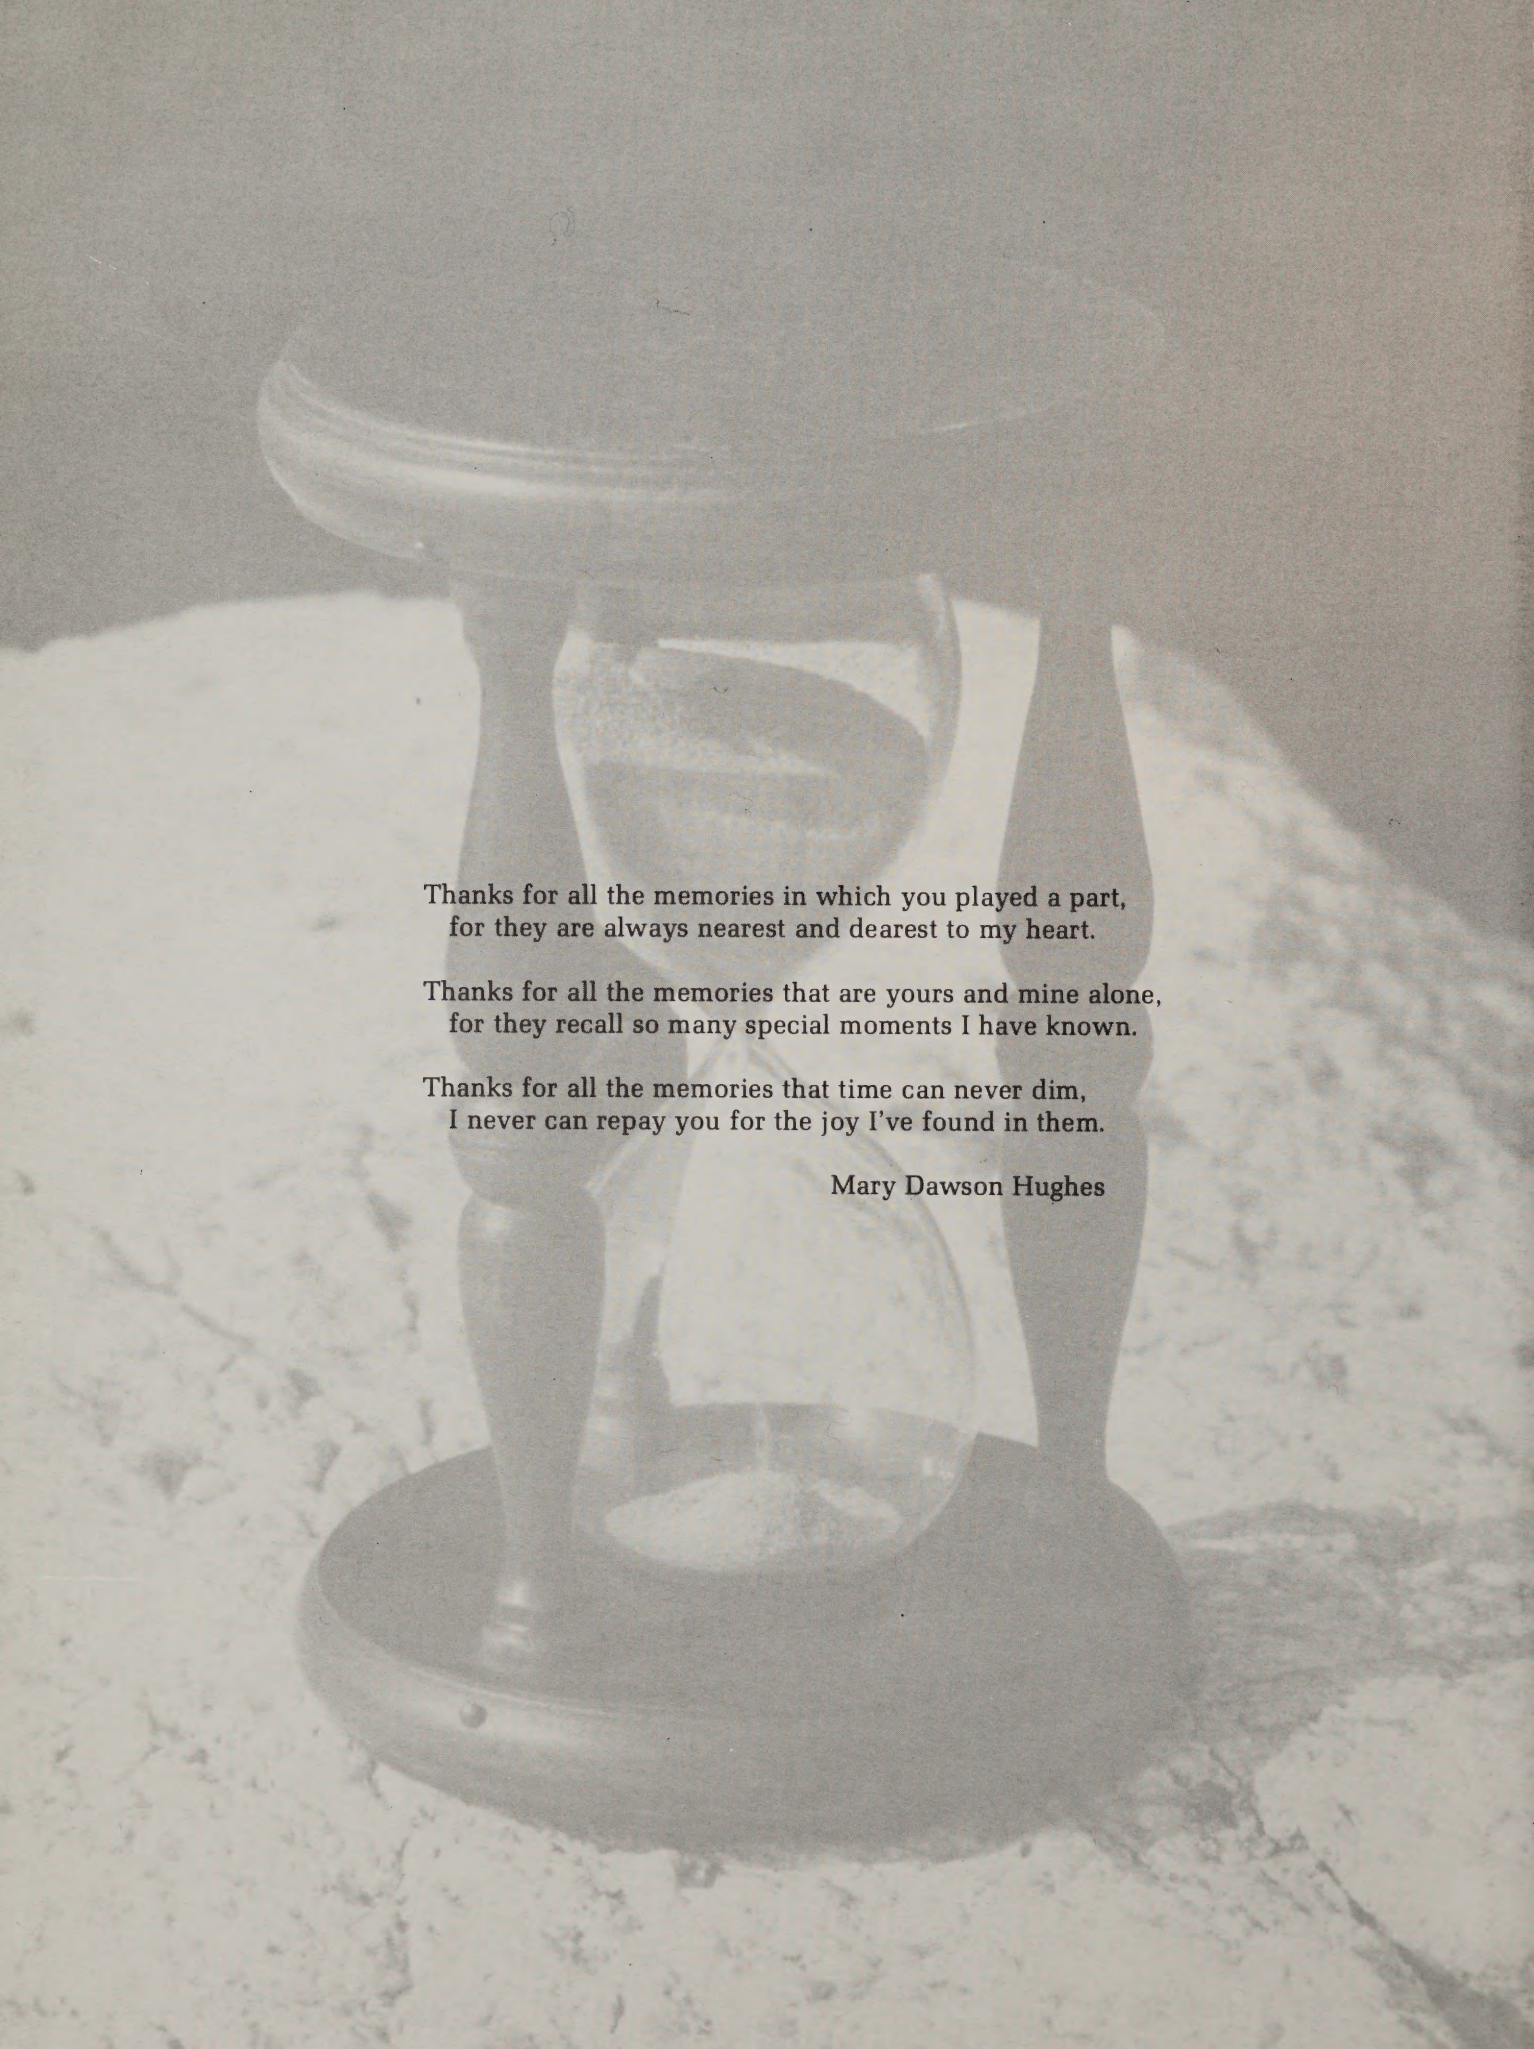
THE VILLAGER PRESENTS

WESTPORT HIGH SCHOOL, 19 MAIN ROAD, WESTPORT, MASSACHUSETTS 02790
MCMLXXIX



Thanks for all the memories in which you played a part,
for they are always nearest and dearest to my heart.

Thanks for all the memories that are yours and mine alone, for they recall so many special moments I have known.

Thanks for all the memories that time can never dim,
I never can repay you for the joy I've found in them.

Must we always teach our children with books?

Let them look at the mountains and the stars up above.

Let them look at the beauty of the waters,

And the trees and flowers on earth.

They will then begin to think,
And to think is the beginning of a real education.

CLASS HISTORY

As father time's hourglass runs low, another school year is slowly coming to an end. Though our years at Westport High will soon be gone, the memories of the graduating class of 1979 will linger on.

Before all our time runs out, we shall help you recall the past and present, the most important times of our lives.

In our first year at Westport High School we started as typical freshmen, electing Julie Berube as president, Lisette Hitt as vice-president, Lisa Gallant as secretary, and LouAnn Gracia as treasurer. Miss Nancy L. DeFaria was appointed as our class advisor, and with her help in organizing class projects, our first year was a big success. We rounded off this year with a trip to New York City.

We entered our sophomore year with an array of changes to our staff of class officers. Leading the way were Jean Adams as president, Colleen Morse as vice-president, Kelly Robertson as secretary, and Brenda Trecida as treasurer. Along with the guidance of Miss DeFaria we designed our class ring as a keepsake of our high school years.

Beginning our junior year as upper classmen, we elected Jean Adams as president, Sue Lemar as vice-president, Mary Anne Bolduc as secretary, and Karen Fernandes as treasurer. We were very excited about our Junior Prom, but due to the Blizzard of '78 it was postponed and we held our Valentine Prom in March. Towards the end of this year we organized our yearbook staff. We finished it with great anticipation of having a prosperous senior year.

Our senior year began with Sue Lemar as president, Liz Hill as vice-president, Julianne Feliz as secretary, and Karen Fernandes as treasurer. Our yearbook was in full swing by the beginning of the year, and our projects were very successful. This last year we have come together as friends, and joined to help our class succeed. Although time will separate us, the memories of each other will live through the years.

We are now leaving Westport High School and the hour glass is turning to a new beginning — the future. We must answer its call and face the world of challenge.

MEMORIES

Memories are made of things
That happen everyday,
Moments as we live them
Things we do and say,
Little bits and pieces
Of laughter mixed with tears,
Paragraphs and pages
Written through the years.
The carefree days of childhood
The growing pains of youth,
A few illusions shattered
In the endless search for truth.

CLASS WILL and TESTAMENT

We, the members of the graduating class of 1979, being of sound minds and bodies, (in spite of opinions to the contrary) and realizing our limitations, do hereby draw up this our last will and testament for the faculty and staff of Westport High School.

We will to:

Miss Adams: male students for the adult living classes.
Mr. Allen: a bottle of pep pills.
Mr. Bibeau: a position in the physical education department.
Mr. Brogan: a math tutor.
Mr. Cabral: Baretta's Cockatoo.
Mrs. Carlson: a gourmet cookbook.
Mrs. Carpenter: a ten year subscription to Sports Illustrated.
Mr. Carreiro: a solution to all his chemistry "problems."
Mr. Chaffee: his own candy store.
Miss Choquette: A toolbox for her earrings.
Mr. Condon: a smile.
Miss DeFaria: next year's freshmen class.
Mr. Donnelly: lyrics to the songs he hums.
Mr. Ellinwood: an application for a Robert Redford contest.
Mr. Emery: his own hardware store.
Mr. Feeney: a lifetime supply of dustless chalk.
Mr. Frezette: a mirror.
Mr. Finucci: travel brochures of Rome, Italy.
Mrs. Francis: a manicurist for her typists.
Mrs. Gunner: a student who enjoys Research Seminar.
Mr. Hague: singing lessons.
Mrs. Hashway: an autographed picture of Maurice Chevalier.
Mr. Hickey: a Mickey Mouse stopwatch.
Mrs. Hurley: her own Theatre Arts Playhouse.
Mrs. Kamm: a secretary.
Mrs. Kehoe: a class that will pay attention.
Mr. Kelly: a loud voice.
Mr. Kingsford: a share in "Kingsford" charcoal.
Mr. Larrivee: the English department.
Mrs. Lawton: a megaphone (?!?!?!?).
Mr. Leite: freshmen classes for the rest of his teaching career.
Miss McLaughlin: a book entitled "Guidance Made Easy."
Mr. Marchand: a multi-purpose cleaner.
Mrs. Marujo: a no-fault typewriter.
Mr. Melli: a day of R and R.
Mr. Mello: a tape of "Report to the office of the Vice-Principal."
Mr. Menard: a monogrammed key to Westport High School.
Mrs. Mickelson: a new set of wire-rimmed hubcaps.
Mrs. Migneault: a Shakespearean Library.
Mrs. Mills: a golden Palimino.
Mr. Moniz: Trillions and trillions of cells.
Mr. Montesanti: a one-man band.
Mrs. Motta: an assortment of art supplies.
Mr. Phelan: a no-fault car.
Mr. Rayno: a set of dumbbells.
Mr. Ready: a years supply of Baby Shampoo.
Mr. Rego: "Snowballs."
Mrs. Resendes: another duty besides girl's room.
Mr. Salvador: a new podium.
Miss Silva: "Bom Dia!"
Miss Silvia: luck with her sophomore class.
Mrs. Simmons: a miracle-cure for gym excuses.
Mr. Souza: a pillow disguised as a Chemistry book.
Mr. Szala: a box of Kleenex.
Mr. Wills: a map to the Fountain of Youth.
Mr. Wilson: a Model T — Ford for restoration.
Mr. Wood: platform sneakers for his volleyball team.
Mr. Zuber: a Polish joke.

Signed: The Class of '79

ALUMNI CHRONICLE

Vol. I No. I Westport, Mass., Saturday, June 10, 1989

YOUTHFUL TOUCH

Today, the Westport Senior Citizen Group elected its new officers for the coming year. Michelle Duquette and Sue Melanson were elected as President and Vice-President respectively. Recording all affairs will be Teri Cote as Secretary. Keeping careful watch over the "piggy bank" will be Debbie Quinn, Treasurer.

Placing complete control of the Senior Citizen group in the hands of these youthful few will be interesting to watch. This will be their first attempt to bridge the "generation gap" in this manner.

Made public was their first compromise concerning events. It was decided that there would be no more than two crocheting races conducted by Cheryl Simoes, Lisa Estrella, and Donna Dwelly, and at least one spectacular "Slow Disco" for all members with the committee being headed by Lisa Bibeau, Lisette Hitt, and Julie Berube. At the disco, there will be a $5 cash prize to be divided among the 10 best dancers. The judges of the "high stepping" event will be Laurie Rebello, Jenny Avila, and Tracy Hawes. It should be noted that there will be rest periods at the dance for the judges who need them. This year promises to be their most unusual ever.

SYLVIA GIVEN FAVA POWER

Jack Sylvia was appointed by the ruler of Portugal to be the chief purchasing agent for the country's entire Fava Bean supply. In this position, he must sample every Fava crop before purchase. Jack will definitely have to use the "old bean" as well as like it.

IMPARTIAL PARTY SIGHTS PONTE

The recently formed Impartial Party sighted Norbert Ponte as their future Presidential hopeful in the 1990 elections. Charles Souza's name has also been mentioned as a running mate. If chosen, their campaign slogan will be "When you go to the polls . . . don't decide, vote impartial!"

LIFE ON SATURN

Professor Carl Pereira has just discovered life on the planet Saturn. Yesterday, he returned from a trip to Saturn and commented that it is a nice place to visit but I wouldn't want to live there.

NEW AIR SPEED RECORD

Jet Pilot, John Desmarais, gained fame today as he succeeded in breaking the presently held speed record. The custom jet was designed and built by Russell Chace. The famous duo plan to do even more in the field of flying once they get an engine. When this happens, they may decide to fly passengers. We know of only two stewardess brave enough to fly with their airplane. They are fearless flyers, Dawn Sampson and Lori Sylvia.

COMPUTER SPECIALISTS STUMPED

Last month computer specialists Sue Jusseaume, Mark Smith, Rene Laurendeau, and LouAnn Gracia were summoned totogether by world leaders to program the largest computer now in existence. Their efforts to date have been fruitless. The computer constantly displays "Mickey Mouse Club" re-runs. The experts plan to correct the problem in the near future.

UNUSUAL FINDINGS

James Carreiro, Mike Florea, and Teri Choquette as a joint venture discovered gold in Westport. Jeff King, Mayor of the town, commented on this as an historical finding which should make the threesome rich and famous.

PECULIAR PARTY

Millionaire, Glenn Flynn, held a gala party aboard his yacht last evening in honor of the noted Parliamentary interpreter for the United Nations, Laura Antimiani. The lavish affair was enhanced by the floral decor of Linda Ferreira. The unbelieveable music of Joe Fontaine and the "Kid Kools". A superb dinner was prepared by Frank Alves and Clayton Talbot. The blast would have been a great success had Flynn's personal aide, Linda Cardozo, remembered to send the invitations. The event lacked nothing, but guests.

CORVETTE TRAVEL

The Corvette Travel Agency is sponsoring tours of Westport. Reservations for the tours can be made by contacting Denise Fournier, Manager. Tour Guide, Martha Sullivan, will drive you through Westport in a 1972 Corvette.

The United Secretaries League, headed by Lisa Gallant and Cathy Santos, are planning a massive demonstration against the large typewriter manufacturers for defects in their products. They claim their typing is flawless but the typewriters are misspelling. A solution if doubtful.

NEW CPA FIRM

A new accounting firm has been introducted to our area. The certified public accountants which comprize the firm are Pat Tripp, Liz Hill, and Sherrie Kirby. The Corporation name will be "Facts and Figures for a Fee, Inc."

BUSINESS WORLD

Ronald Alvares and Kenneth Amaral announce the opening of their own Clam Shack. They are offering a free clam-cake with every purchase. They also mention that their "shack" was designed and built by the Stephen Resendes Building Company.

GOSSIP COLUMN

For the past ten years, Mike Tavares and Sharon Tripp have been secretly meeting at the junction of 128N and 128S. This has finally been made public by Caroline M. Souza, only because she was hired by the town to translate the notes that Sharon and Mike would leave.

Heidi Phipps is wealthy, high and happy. She owns the Penthouse in the RCA building.

Michael Alves is now the owner of the "Wild and Crazy Disco Palace". He has created a new dance called Ambition.

David Morse is now training huskies in Alaska. He never got to be a lifeguard.

NEW LOOK AHEAD

Hairstylists Nancy Bernier, Laurie Cookson, and Jennifer McIlwaine are attempting to promote the "bald look" for both men and women. They realize that the winter months will be chilly, but it makes their job so much easier.

THERAPIST CONVENTION IN LOS ANGELES

The 3rd Annual Convention of Therapist was held at the General Hospital in L.A. yesterday. Art Therapist, Lisa St. Amour, taught the other therapists how to draw stick people. Robin Wetherell, a physical therapist, commented "that doesn't give us much to work with." Agreeing with her comment were colleagues Brenda Trecida, Judy Phillips, Anne Hubert, and Debbie Wood. Occupational Therapist, Sharon Avilla, remained neutral on the subject.

LOST AND FOUND

Attention: Be on the lookout for Julie Feliz, the first woman astronaut who while on her way to the moon fell off course and is now considered lost in space.

Nancy Alves, Deb Whalon, and Robin Astle have all lost their ambitions. Anyone finding them, contact the nearest unemployment agency.

HEALTH

Martin Flechsig, the modern day Rip-Van-Winkle, has found a cure for insomnia. If you can awaken him he will gladly tell you his findings.

Reena Khanna, Surgeon General, has determined that Sari's are hazardous to your health. They are too tight around the waist.

HYGENISTS AND NURSES UNITED

This weekend a joint convention will be held in New York City by the Westport Dental Hygenists and the Westport Nursing Association. Area hygenists to attend will be Mary Anne Bolduc, Robin Fournier, Janice Margarida, and Gina Paulo. Nurses from the surrounding area planning to be present are Bev Camboia, Deb Dias, Jessica Harrop, Noreen Horton, Michelle Marques, and Theresa Pietrzyk. A spokesman for the group claims that each will be lectured in the others field. The nurses will be gaining "Wisdom" from teeth, and the hygenists will be versed on "Bed Side Manners". This should prove to be an interesting event.

SPORTS

Gary Ferry had two goals and an assist to lead the Bruins to victory over the Canadians. Ferry scored the winning goal for the second straight night to break a 3-3 tie and added his 50th goal of the season.

Jean Adams, in a pair of custom designed platform sneakers by Gladys DeVaney, was able to defeat Janet Routhier in the $200,000 Women's Tennis Championship held in Chicago.

Superjock, Mark Pelletier, has just signed a three million dollar, ten year contract with the Boston Celtics. Through the efforts of his agent, David Cabral, the contract will include free bowling lessons for the entire period.

Robin Pimental has just been named Miss Field Hockey by the 1989 WHS Field Hockey team. She was presented a gold puck and an ice hockey stick autographed by the famous David Simonin of the Canadians.

Bruce Vieira won the Indianapolis 500. He broke all speed records. When asked how he got his car to go so fast he replied "It's all because of my Pit Man, Michael Bernier's fine expertise on car motors.

GOLFER DISLIKES BIRDIES

Today, Marquita Jones made her professional golfing debut in the 1989 Women's Colgate Open Classic. She was lucky enough to see 4 "birdies" during the tournament. Unfortunately, they were perched on the end of her golf club causing her to miss a shot at the 18th hole. She made a fine display but the mishap placed her second in the field.

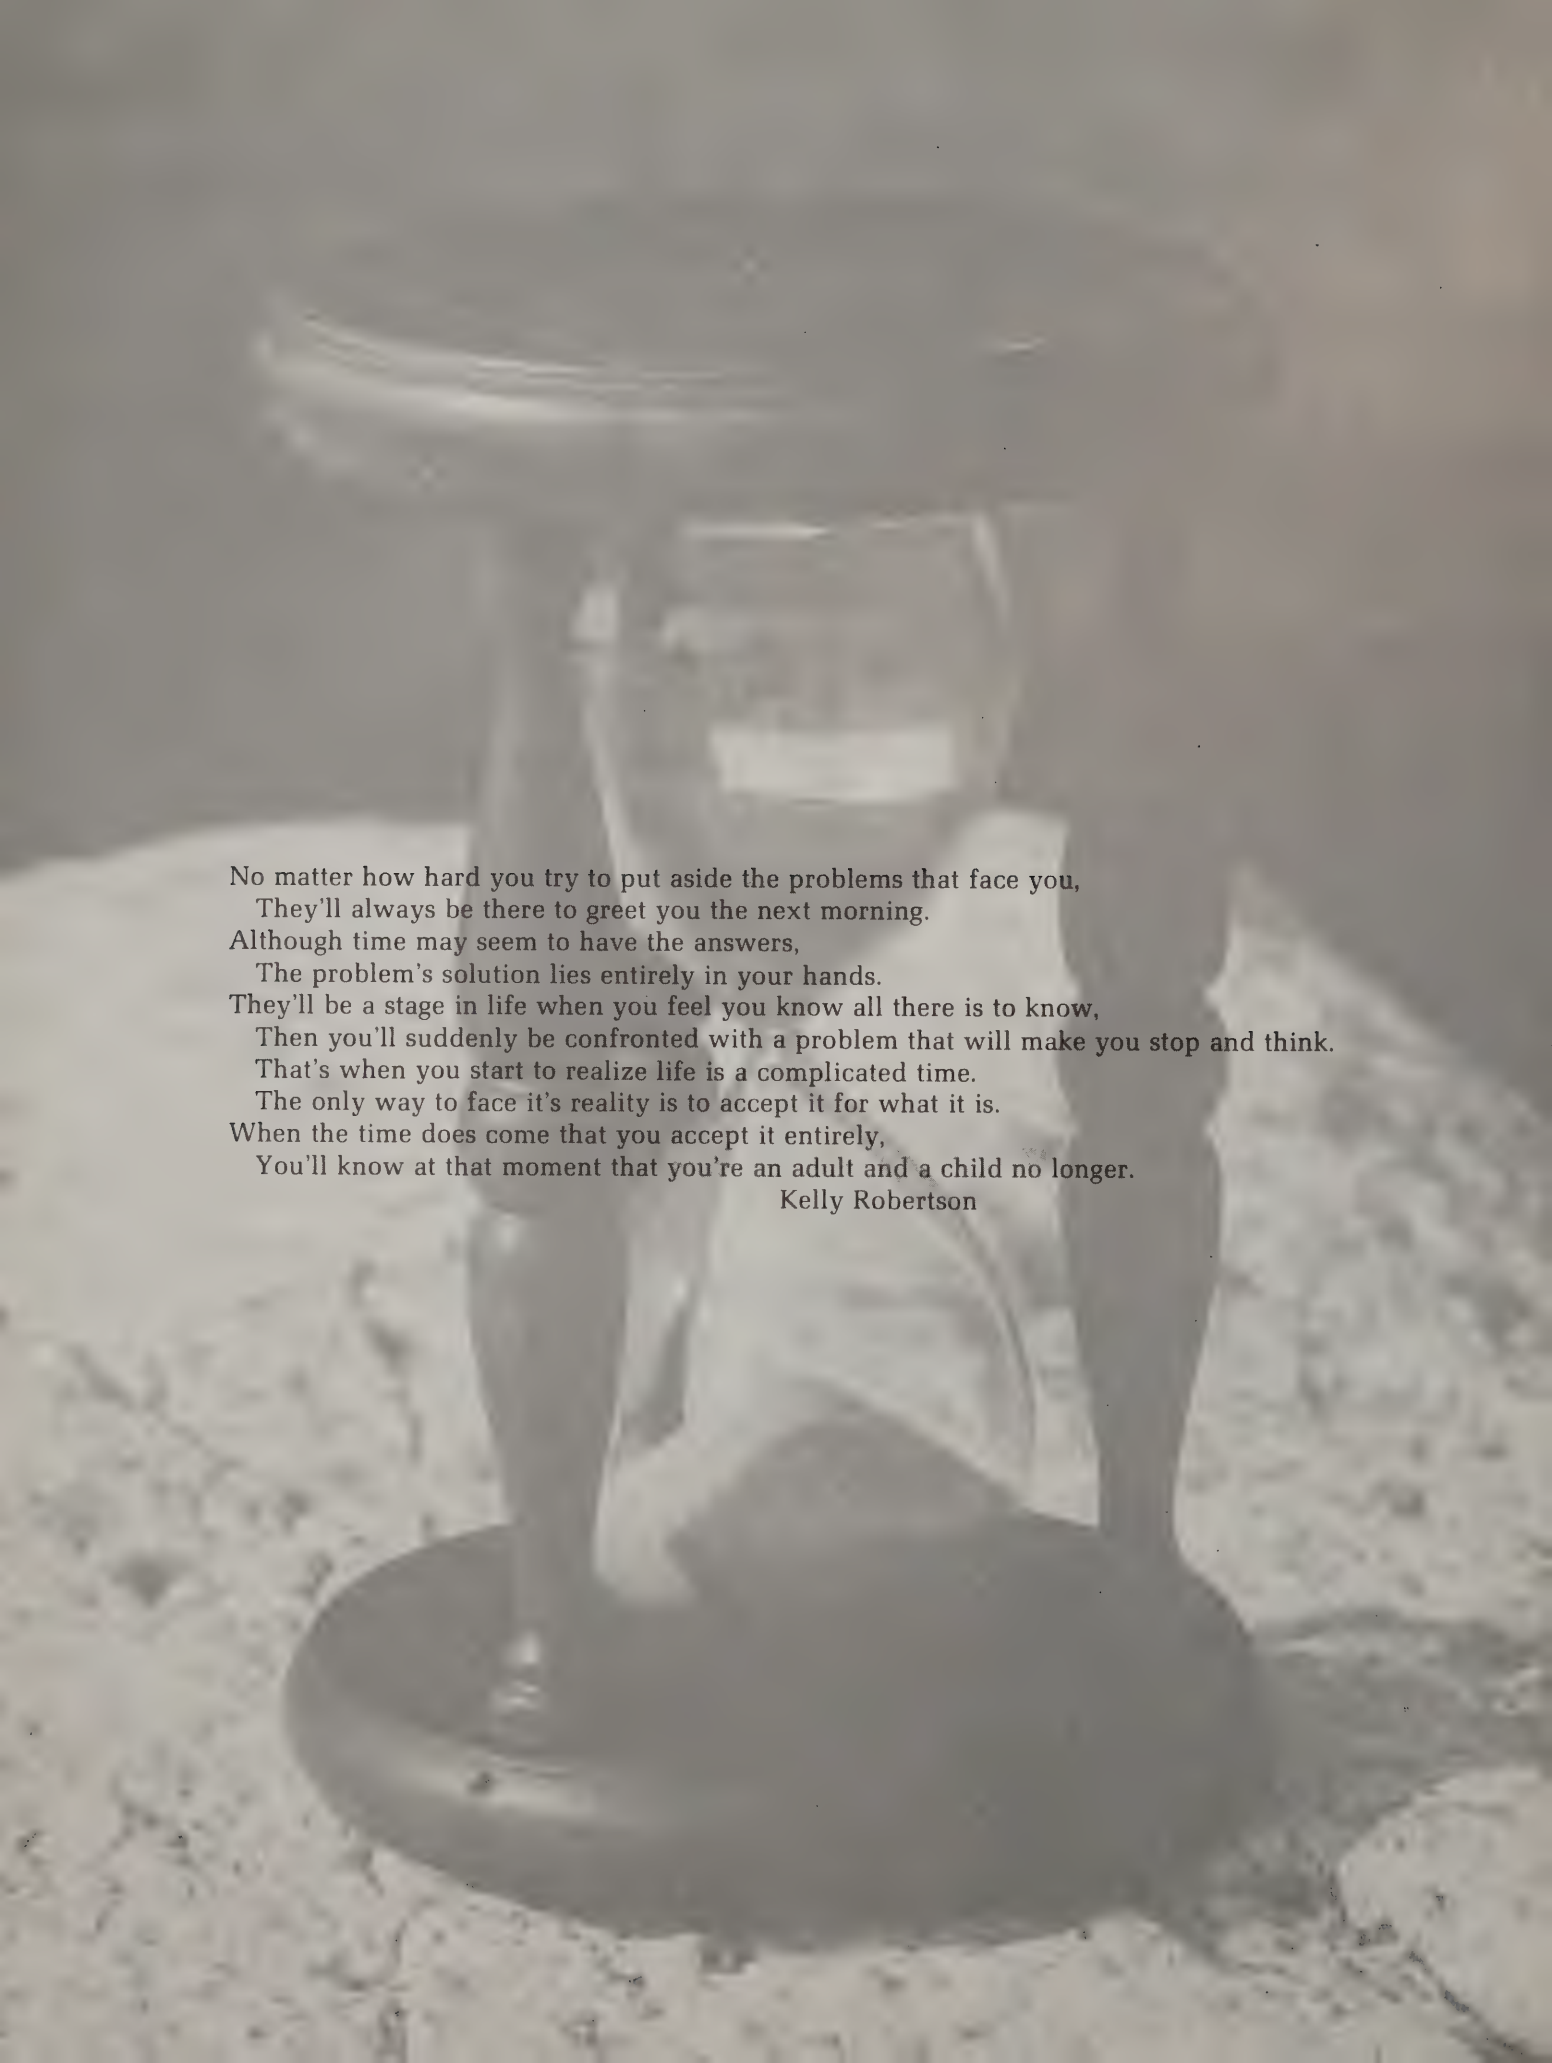
JUNIOR MISS

Jean Adams



No matter how hard you try to put aside the problems that face you,
They'll always be there to greet you the next morning.
Although time may seem to have the answers,
The problem's solution lies entirely in your hands.
They'll be a stage in life when you feel you know all there is to know,
Then you'll suddenly be confronted with a problem that will make you stop and think.
That's when you start to realize life is a complicated time.
The only way to face it's reality is to accept it for what it is.
When the time does come that you accept it entirely,
You'll know at that moment that you're an adult and a child no longer.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

At Day's End

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?
Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?
The day is almost over, and its toiling time is through;
Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?
Can you say tonight, in parting with the day that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?
Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said;
Does the man whose hopes were fading,
now with courage look ahead?
Did you waste the day, or lose it? Was it well or sorely spent?
Did you leave a trail of kindness, or a scar of discontent?
As you close your eyes in slumber, do
You think that God will say,
"You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today"?

For yesterday is but a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision,
but today, well lived,
makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.
